Parent/carer

As part of our support for students during the exam season, Year 11 have a number of revision sessions available to them over the May Half Term break; please see the attached timetable for details. Morning sessions run from 9.00 to 11:30 and afternoon sessions from 12:00 to 15:00 – unless indicated otherwise.

- Students should arrive on site for morning sessions from 8.45am and no later than 08.55am and for afternoon sessions from 11.45am and no later than 11.55am. Teachers delivering sessions will meet students in the Main Hall and then escort them over to the rooms they are using.
- Students need not wear school uniform but they should bring their normal school equipment and any revision materials that they feel may be useful.
- Food won't be available at lunch time, however if students want to stay for both a morning and afternoon session, on any day, they can bring a packed lunch.
- The revision sessions will be specifically planned to support identified areas of support highlighted by the recent mock exams. They will be focused and high paced. As such the same expectations for engagement and conduct will apply as in any normal school day.

If students intend to attend the sessions offered it would be beneficial to make their subject teachers aware in person or via email so we can anticipate numbers.

Please do not hesitate to contact me if you have any questions or queries about the revision provision.

Yours faithfully

Martin Dawson
Deputy Headteacher
